Burglary Suspect Arrested A security guard patrolling a business on Frederick Avenue was making his rounds when he came upon an unlocked door. "He looked through the window and noticed a flashlight in the drawer. He came in and got a flashlight of his own," said Lt. Hank Howe, who heads the Upper Marlboro Police Department's investigative unit. That's when he said he noticed something that didn't seem right. "There were signs of a forced entry. There were items strewn all over the floor. They were looking for something," Howe said. Police found out they were looking for an ATV and three laptops. Howe said he and a friend decided to take pictures of the thief because he was so brazen in his theft. They were following him, talking on their cell phones, when the man took off. "I followed him in an unmarked car. As soon as he turned to go up the hill, I ran into him. I ran up and 77a5ca646e
