Let us know and thank you for watching! Growing up, I wasn't a fan of the color blue. I felt uncomfortable wearing it, especially when I had to wear a skirt. I preferred to wear all black. Even when I moved to the West Coast as an adult, I didn't like to wear blue. I believed it was too… blue. I have changed my attitude towards the color blue. I have been wearing it more and more as my style has evolved. I have decided to use blue as a color that I enjoy wearing. I feel it is a great color to wear with other colors. Some of my favorite outfits are ones that are a mix of neutrals and pastels with a splash of blue. I have learned that blue is a great color for the fall. It feels refreshing, light, and soothing. I love the colors that accompany it. Here are some of my favorite outfits that include the color blue: Share this: Like this: With summer coming to an end, it's time to talk about the best shoes to wear in the fall. I like to style up a pair of old-fashioned lace-ups or a pair of heeled pumps. I love shoes with rich colors, such as deep red, burgundy, and wine. As long as the color is a rich color, I don't think it matters what kind of material it is. I love to wear a pair of sneakers and I consider these as my favorite shoes to wear in the fall. I also think that more and more companies are making shoes to the same style in the fall. I haven't found one that makes a pair of "boring" or plain shoes. I was surprised when a pair of blue shoes popped up in my mailbox. These shoes are well-made and they are unique. If you want to wear a colorful pair of shoes, go for these.
