JPEG to PDF Converter is a small Windows application designed specifically for helping you combine multiple image files into a single PDF. Simple looks and supported file formats The main panel is quite poor in configuration settings. You are allowed to add files in the working environment using the built-in browse button, so you cannot rely on the drag-and-drop support. It works with a wide range of file formats: TIF, GIF, JPG, PCX, BMP, ICO, CUR, PNG, EMF, RAW, PSD, and others. What’s more, you can check out details about each photo added to the list, namely path, file size, image size, type, and extension. On the downside, there’s no support for a previewing panel. Joining photos JPEG to PDF Converter gives you the possibility to build up a list with multiple pictures, delete the selected items, arrange the order of photos in the output file by dragging items up or down, as well as clear the entire workspace with just one click. Performance and output results During our testing we have noticed that JPEG to PDF Converter carries out the merging process pretty quickly and provides very good output quality. It leaves a minimal footprint on system resources, so the overall performance of the computer is not affected. Where it falls short On the downside, the tool doesn’t offer support for advanced features that could help you encrypt PDFs by setting up passwords, allow permissions for printing and copying, as well as edit metadata. Bottom line All things considered, JPEG to PDF Converter proves to be a straightforward piece of software that comes bundled with basic features for helping you combine multiple image files into a single PDF. Lowest Price Magazine is an online magazine created by a bunch of college kids in New York City that posts free promotional materials on a monthly basis. Lowest Price Magazine is considered to be a very large competitor to Groupon. It was founded in late 2008, but became fully operational only in September 2009. In June 2010, Groupon, which also creates its own free magazine with free stuff for locals called Groupon Local, announced that it will be switching from a monthly to a daily publication format. As a result, it acquired 100 percent of Lowest Price Magazine. The intention was to help create more consistency and increased traffic in their own publications. Groupon Local is currently an independent publication, not owned by Groupon. Lowest Price Magazine is a publication in the daily deal space. It takes a unique approach by selling only a selection of stuff online. The client can choose which deals they want to buy, and receive them via email. The Daily Deals Lowest Price Magazine offers a range of daily deals every day. There are four main deals that people buy: Personalised T-shirts Headphones Tablets Sunglasses All the deals run for 24 hours. Today’s deal The magazine is heavily focused on personalised products, such as T-shirts. It is now time for a promotion where clients can buy a personalised T-shirt from a graphic artist for $10. Groupon Local is getting a bit more competition in this space, as a new service called Daily Local Deals launched in October 2010 that offers T-
