When Tamaki from DOA2 appeared in DOA5, he became involved in a fight with her until their body was separated. That was the end of the relationship between them. Since then, Tamaki has been waiting for a chance to reunite with her Daigo. One day, Tamaki is shocked to see Daigo standing in front of her. It seems he looks like a completely different person. It seems he was preparing for the fight with her. Although he takes a step forward, Tamaki is not accepting him. After this incident, Tamaki has been waiting for Daigo to appear. Daigo: Ok, I have finally met you again. But what happened to you? Tamaki: I don't want to see you. I've already given you up once, and you... this looks nothing like you! Daigo: Is that why you're so angry? Tamaki: I'm not angry. You look like a different person than you used to. That kind of thing is not your style... Daigo: Does that mean you don't want to see me? Tamaki: I used to be in love with you, and I'm still in love with you. But you... you're not the same. Daigo: That's not true. It's the same Daigo. When we talk, we should act the same. Tamaki:...OK. (beat) But I still have a question to ask you. Daigo: What is it? Tamaki: Do you hate me? Daigo: No, of course not. As long as you're happy, I'm happy

Architecture, fashion and music, amongst others, will engage with the audience in an exhibition of art, crafts and performance in the DOA6 Summer Breeze collection. This is a visual representation of innocent and carefree summer in many fields, starting with words and expressing it in points of view that are entirely different from the real world. This year, for example, “Day in the Life” is going to tell a story of the unseen world of people rather than a tale of an individual. Highlights of the exhibition features works with titles such as “The House That Can’t Sit Still,” “An Interruption in the Magic Movie,” “Harmonious Pursuit,” and “A Touch of the Clean Heart.” (Promotional materials are not yet published in English.) The specially annotated booklet that complements the exhibition will be available for sale. The venue for the exhibition is the TOKYO Art Museum, which will play host for the first time during this year’s festival. The exhibition will be running
