Desktop Lock XP Crack + Free For PC [Updated]

Desktop Lock XP is a lightweight application designed to help you lock your computer by setting up passwords. Compared to other similar applications that come packed with different encryption algorithms for protecting sensitive data from being accessed by other users, this tool offers a simple solution when it comes to locking your computer. Desktop Lock XP sits quietly in the system tray until called upon. It offers only a few configuration settings to tinker with. Basically, it proves to be extremely easy to work with this tool, as you can lock the PC with just one click. Additionally, you can make the application display the lock screen at Windows startup, and this way parents can make sure their children aren't using the computer without their permissions. What's more, Desktop Lock XP gives users the possibility to enable or disable sound notifications, and display tips. During our testing we have noticed that Desktop Lock XP carries out a task very quickly and without errors throughout the entire process. As it would be expected from such a small utility, it manages to remain light on the system resources, so it doesn't hamper system performance, nor interfere with other programs' functionality. All things considered, Desktop Lock XP offers a simple software solution when it comes to blocking other users' access to your desktop. It can be easily configured and installed by all types of users, regardless of their experience level. On the downside, it cannot be considered a top product from its category, as it lacks many advanced features. Compatibility CNET Editors' Rating The Good Worked fast, quiet, and easy to use Funky lock screens Comprehensive feature set The Bad Relies on third party utilities Its "Office Productivity" suite is a little bloated How do you know when you're working with a good locking solution? If you ask 10 people, they'll all give you different answers. For me, it's when it keeps me out of situations where I shouldn't be, while letting me do things I want to do. I've been using Lock Locker for a few years now, and while it has a few bugs, and quirks, I still like it a lot. Desktop Lock XP offers the same functionality but with a cleaner interface. With this solution, you get a clean, easy to use interface, clean-looking lock screens, and a handful of additional features
