In addition to improving ball physics by making the ball more responsive and more accurate, “HyperMotion Technology” introduces reactive animations that improve what happens when players win aerial duels, interplay against multiple opponents and rip shot opportunities towards goal. Improved AI Teammate Manager “Teammate Manager” is a re-imagining of how players will interact with their teammates while on the pitch. The “Teammate Manager” in Fifa 22 Serial Key reacts to player behaviour through a new intuitive interface that plays into the new “Teammate Manager” AI. More authentic player behaviour Speedy “Run Acceleration” and “Run Speed” systems that react to player runs with their surrounding team-mates. Player runs now start with a manual acceleration phase, which is then affected by speed boost received during the run-up. Effectively control a player’s run by decreasing the amount of acceleration or acceleration as their speed decreases. All in one ability to control how a player reacts to a run. Player Behaviour Impact and Savvy Agility System. The more a player jinks around, the more difficult they are to control. The “Impact and Savvy Agility System” has been re-tooled to add a new set of contextual abilities designed to respond to an opponent that is physically present. Aerial duels also respond to the player’s speed and aggression with improved collision detection and more accurate results. There is also a new interactivity system, which is intended to mimic real-life player interaction. More realistic duels, including player momentum, dribbling and elusiveness. Run and Manoeuvre Make better decisions. Every player has a different ‘decision make’ ability that enables them to think and react to the situation around them. In order to improve this decision making, there is a new ‘Run and Manoeuvre’ choice made during every run. Increase moments of inspiration. Actions made when a player’s game is on-fire will have a more pronounced impact on their overall ratings, regardless of the club or the level. Players no longer need to be at their best to get a match-winning performance. Evolve Your Club Real teams, real players. When you step on the field, you’ll play out
