These are going to be some big and disgusting insects and you will find.Frivolous lawsuits are becoming an epidemic in America, and I'm tired of it. The financial losses caused by these frivolous lawsuits are enormous, and if we don't address the problem, they could bankrupt the defendant. It's time to stop these frivolous lawsuits once and for all. In this issue, we have two stories that are related to frivolous lawsuits. In the first, a plaintiff sued the town of Andover claiming that the town refused to pay her to demolish a condemned structure on her property, and it was false advertising to tell the public that the house was for sale and then refuse to sell it when a buyer was found. The lawsuit was dismissed and the plaintiff was ordered to pay the defendant's attorney fees and costs. In the second, a California man brought a frivolous lawsuit claiming that he was severely injured by a defective computer chair on a commercial airline flight. The lawsuit was settled for $750,000 and the plaintiff paid $24,000 in attorney fees and costs. In the third, a San
