and directed by Kasthuri Raja. Production began in January 2011 and starred Silambarasan, Hari and Aditi Rao Hydari, while Sasikumar, Samuthirakani, and then-impending star Vijayalakshmi attended the soundtrack launch, held on 5 April 2011. The soundtrack featured original soundtracks written by Ghibran, then-formers of 90s Tamil music band S. P. B. Charan. The film is a remake of the 2010 Kannada film

Thadakam, which itself is a remake of the 2004 Bengali film Saptapadi. Sattai received positive reviews, with critics lauding Silambarasan's performance and the film's pace, plot and experimental comedy. The film was among the five at the 63rd Filmfare Awards South, who were awarded with a Critics Choice award for the movie. It was also dubbed in Hindi as "Roop Raha Hai Sattya" and released in Telugu as "Dheere Dheere
