However, this book refutes that theory. Why? Because it has facts and evidence. "Evolution by Natural Selection: or, the Preservation of Favoured Races in the Struggle for Life" is a book that is based on the theory of evolution. It explains that the theory of evolution proves that it is only the dominant races that have survived. This provides an answer to why the Black African people from Africa were not favoured in the past, but why they are the dominating human population today. As we read this book, we learn about the common human, animal, and plant species that have given birth to modern science and technology. We become familiar with the origin
